

105TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 6

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to protect the rights of crime victims.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 21, 1997

Mr. KYL (for himself and Mrs. FEINSTEIN) introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to protect the rights of crime victims.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled
3 (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the fol-
4 lowing article is proposed as an amendment to the Con-
5 stitution of the United States, which shall be valid for all
6 intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when 7 ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several 8 States within seven years from the date of its submission
9 by the Congress:

1 the victim to make a reasonable effort to make those au-
2 thorities aware of the victim's whereabouts prevents that 3 notice.

4 “SECTION 2. The victim shall have standing to assert 5 the rights established by this article. However, nothing in 6 this article shall provide grounds for the victim to chal-
7 lenge a charging decision or a conviction; to obtain a stay
8 of trial; or to compel a new trial. Nothing in this article 9 shall give rise to a claim for damages against the United 10 States, a State, a political subdivision, or a public official,
11 nor provide grounds for the accused or convicted offender
12 to obtain any form of relief.

13 “SECTION 3. The Congress and the States shall have 14 the power to enforce this article within their respective ju-
15 risdictions by appropriate legislation, including the power
16 to enact exceptions when required for compelling reasons
17 of public safety or for judicial efficiency in mass victim
18 cases.

19 “SECTION 4. The rights established by this article
20 shall apply to all proceedings that begin on or after the 21 180th day after the ratification of this article.

22 “SECTION 5. The rights established by this article
23 shall apply in all Federal and State proceedings, including 24 military proceedings to the extent that Congress may pro-
25 vide by law, juvenile justice proceedings, and collateral

1 proceedings such as habeas corpus, and including proceed-
2 ings in any district or territory of the United States not 3 within a State.”.
